About the 2009 Upper Midwest Emmys Gift Bags

This year, for the first time, Emmy winners and presenters will receive a gift bag filled with goodies from regional supporters. Twenty gift bags will be available for purchase – for $25 each – on the night of the awards.

Proceeds from gift bag and other auction items help to raise scholarship money for Upper Midwest students who are interested in pursuing a career in electronic media.

The 2009 Midwest Emmys Gift Bags include the following items, thanks to generous donations from the organizations listed. The approximate retail value of the gift bags is over $1,700!
